Canton To Be Capital For A Day

PIERRE, S.D. – Gov. Dennis Daugaard announced today that Canton has been chosen to be South Dakota’s Capital for a Day on Wednesday, Sept. 28.

“I look forward to the Canton event, and thank community leaders for offering to host it,” Gov. Daugaard said. “It’s an excellent opportunity for me to get better acquainted with them and more informed about local issues and the future of the Canton area.”

The Governor and a small delegation of state officials will tour Canton, have a lunch meeting with business and community leaders, and conduct a community roundtable session. There will also be a constituent-outreach hour.

“We are excited to welcome Gov. Daugaard and to be South Dakota’s Capital for a Day, said Canton Mayor Elizabeth Bowling. “Canton has a great story to tell, and we are eager to show the rest of the state why Canton is a great place to work, do business, visit, and call home!”

Capital for a Day at Canton will conclude with coffee with the Governor. A complete agenda will be released at a later date.
